STATEMENT OF AGREEMENT

If I am accepted as a semifinalist, I agree to arrive in Milwaukee in a timely fashion that will assure my participation in all scheduled events from June 3, 2010 through the Finals and Awards Concert on June 9. I understand that if I am a finalist, I must remain in Milwaukee until June 10, 2010 at 12:00 noon. I understand that I am responsible for my own transportation to and from Milwaukee and that host families are available to offer accommodations during my stay.

I declare that all information given in this application is accurate and truthful. I acknowledge the receipt of all requirements in the competition's Rules/Guidelines. (Please refer to the PianoArts Web site's Competition page, Rules/Guidelines.) I understand them and agree to abide by them. I understand that the application fee of $100 and the semifinal registration fee of $225 are non-refundable. I verify that my submitted DVD recording is that of my own performance and not altered in any way. I understand that my second pianist should not be seen on the DVD recording.

I agree to accept all decisions of the judges as final. I further agree that if I receive awards in the competition, I shall honor all commitments resulting from the awards. I hereby grant permission for photographs of me to be used in flyers, brochures, magazines, and newspapers and on the Internet. I also grant permission for part or all of my performances in the competition to be electronically recorded or videotaped for distribution – live, tape-delayed, or by future transmission in all media.

I will make no claim whatsoever for any funds that may accrue to PianoArts of Wisconsin, Inc., (the PianoArts registered name) assignees or licenses resulting from the use of photographs and recorded, filmed or videotape material.

I understand that I may not use recordings, videos or photographs taken during the competition, or at other sponsored PianoArts events, for publicity purposes without prior permission of PianoArts.

If I win a prize or scholarship in the PianoArts Competition, I shall give recognition of that award in all my future publicity. Following are examples of the preferred wording: "PianoArts North American 2010 Biennial Piano Competition Winner of (placement) Place Prize", or "PianoArts North American 2010 Biennial Piano Competition Winner of the Best Performance of a Duo", or "PianoArts North American 2010 Biennial Piano Competition Winner of the Audience Communication Award," or "PianoArts North American 2010 Biennial Piano Competition Wisconsin Contestant Award," or "PianoArts North American 2010 Biennial Piano Competition Winner of Scholarship to the International Keyboard Institute and Festival at the New School Mannes College of Music".

If invited, I will perform one or two recitals without compensation, except for expenses, to benefit PianoArts.

If invited to participate as a PianoArts Fellow, I agree to schedule a minimum of two weeks (consecutive or non-consecutive weeks) in the Milwaukee area. As a Fellow, I agree to work with professional musicians and educators to develop programs for diverse audiences and to perform the programs for audiences of diverse ages, ethnic and economic backgrounds. I understand that there will be tours of schools ranging from elementary schools to colleges. In preparation for these programs, I understand that I will participate in curriculum development and will rehearse all presentations with qualified and experienced professionals in the field. I further understand that all my expenses will be covered during the residencies and that I should give recognition of my selection and participation as a PianoArts Fellow in future publicity.

All information contained in the contestant information, application and brochure is correct at this time of printing. PianoArts reserves all rights to make changes if circumstances make it necessary to do so. PianoArts also reserves the right to cancel the competition should there be mitigating circumstances. In the case of cancellation, registration fees will be refunded to the contestants.
